

I support current limits on broadcast station ownership and would like to limit ownership even more strictly than is now the case. In Dallas, Texas the Belo Corporation Owns television, radio and newspaper assets which allows the corporation to exert great influence in that city, and I am sure that this situation exists in other cities as well. I thank you, in advance, for your attention to this matter.